

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Southeast Washington

Miss Jessie L. Sebree, of Capitol Hill, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dodge, in Boston, Mass. She has recently accepted a position as organist of the Dorchester Temple, which will keep her away until school opens in September.

Mrs. E. O. Eldridge, of Mandan, N. D., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Heinlein, at 14 Twelfth street southeast.

Miss E. J. Kiefer entertained a few of her friends at her home, 934 South Carolina avenue, Thursday evening. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Violet Lawrence, Emily Lawrence, Elsie Yost, Jessie Koons, Elizabeth Kiefer, Ethel Giles, Rosa Kiefer, and Messrs. Henry E. Ullmann, Edwin Jones, John P. Yeatman, James Kane, and Barton L. Brook.

Miss Mabel Mower, who has been visiting Mrs. A. P. Crenshaw, has returned to her home in Mississippi.

Miss Margaret Weller, who has been visiting in the country in western Maryland, has returned to her home at Eighth and Eye streets.

Clark C. Burritt, who was president of the 1905 graduating class at the Eastern High School, has accepted a position in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The District Commissioners have ordered that 240 feet of eight-inch water main be laid in South Carolina avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, and crossing reservation 90 to the south side of Massachusetts avenue.

Kate O'Donnell has transferred the property, 623 North Carolina avenue southeast to James O'Donnell.

Miss Josephine E. Hlatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Hlatt, and Fred Lee were married Wednesday of last week, at the home of the bride's parents, 502 Seward square. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present. The Rev. Edward B. Bagby, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church, officiated. The bride's only attendant was Miss Katherine M. Fletcher, while the groom was attended by Harry M. Hlatt, the bride's brother.

Miss Monice Hallam played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Lees left the city in the evening for the North, where they will visit New York and Boston, among other cities. After August 1 they will be at home to their friends at 417 A street southeast for the remainder of the summer.

James P. Wilson, thirty-five years old, living at 611 North Carolina avenue, was struck by a street car and knocked down while crossing the street car tracks at Pennsylvania avenue and Ninth street, Sunday afternoon. His injuries were not serious.

John B. Lord has transferred the property on lot 68, square 878, southeast, to Antonio Monaco.

About $200 worth of damage was caused early Sunday morning by a fire in the eating house of Mitchell & Murphy, 1013 Eighth street southeast. The fire department responded to an alarm turned in from box 514, and the blaze was extinguished within a short time. The fire was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove.

A horse belonging to A. Malnati, of the East Capitol street, hopped over its partly opened sewer trap and injured its legs, while being driven through an alley Saturday. One leg of the animal was badly cut, while another was bruised.

Painfully Injured. While working in the tunnel in Southeast, Saturday afternoon, about 5:45 o'clock, Frank Rumbando, aged thirty-one years, was struck in the head by a falling stone and painfully injured. The Casualty Hospital ambulance was summoned and the injured man was taken to the hospital. The injury was only slight.

Firemen Cecil and Lockwood, of No. 8 Engine Company, successfully passed their year's probation recently, and presented their fellow-men with ice cream and cake in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. L. P. Spinner, accompanied by her daughter, is visiting in Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. L. M. Hynson, of Southeast, has returned from a trip to New York.

Miss Dorris Bland, who has been working for the Blue mountains, Va., where she will spend a vacation of seven or eight weeks' duration.

John Hultz has left town to spend his vacation at Revere Beach, Mass. He is accompanied by his mother and sister, and will remain away until the middle of September.

Mrs. Walker has left the city to visit friends in Virginia.

All the parts of Dr. Petrola's boat have arrived, and have been put together. When launched, about August 15, the boat will be a long and gasoline launch, thirty feet long with seven and one-half feet beam. The little vessel will be sumptuously furnished in the most up-to-date way. The boat is at present undergoing a thorough process of corking.

William Brown, aged twenty-nine years, died at his home, 1112 Fifth street southeast, last Tuesday.

Miss Annie Johnston, of Deane, Md., and Miss Eleanor Johnston, of Batavia, Ill., both former residents of Capitol Hill, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. Robert H. Zimmerman, on Capitol Hill.

Captain and Mrs. Reisinger are visiting the latter's parents, at the Marine Barracks.

News at the Barracks. Capt. Edward R. Schreiner, assistant surgeon, has been relieved from duty at Fort McHenry, Md., and ordered to duty at the Barracks.

Private Charles Glyder has been found guilty of larceny and selling clothing, and has been sentenced to be discharged, to forfeit all pay and allowances, and to be confined at hard labor for nine months.

Private Branstel T. Barnes, Hospital Corps, has been sentenced to six months' confinement at hard labor and to forfeit $50 of his pay on conviction of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Private James E. Percell has been sentenced to hard labor for three months and to forfeit $20 of his pay, for being absent without leave.

C. L. Smith, bookkeeper for the new East Washington Savings Bank, has moved to 110 Seventh street southeast. The Commissioners have ordered that in connection with the paving of the roadway of 24 street southeast, between Half and Third streets, the necessary changes in the grades and the width of the roadway and corresponding changes in the footwalks and contiguous paving be made by day labor, at an estimated cost of $200.

About 7,000 feet of new hose was tested at No. 8 Engine House Wednesday morning. Twelve thousand feet more is expected to arrive soon.

Major J. H. Stine, of 135 Carroll street southeast, president of the United States Historical Society, who represented the society at the convention of educators at Asbury Park, and succeeded in having it made national in character and scope, received a call from several of the officers of the organization Saturday night, who congratulated him on his work for the society at the convention.

Major Stine informed his callers Saturday evening that the work of establishing branches in all the States would be taken up, and it is his expectation that by next winter, the work will be well under way.

Became Suddenly Ill. An ambulance from the Casualty Hospital was called to the railroad tracks at Second and K streets southeast, Saturday, and conveyed Horace Hollins to the hospital. Hollins is an engineer on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, and became suddenly ill while making his run Saturday from Richmond. He remained at his post, however, until train No. 8 engine house, mentioned above, when he collapsed. After he had been treated at the hospital he was able to go home.

A small boy was bitten by a dog on Twelfth street southeast Tuesday, and was taken to Petrola's drug store on Pennsylvania avenue, where the injury was cauterized by Joseph F. Arth.

Driver Ward, No. 8 engine house, is away on leave of absence.

Herbert Kidd, aged seven years, whose home is at 506 Seventh street southeast, was run over by a team driven by G. H. Warner, of 322 Ninth street Saturday afternoon, and severely injured. Dr. Butz attended the child's injury. The accident occurred near the boy's home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson and their daughter, Miss May Wilson, are staying at the Lockwood, Harper's Ferry.

A committee of citizens representing residents in the vicinity of Georgia avenue and Fourteenth street called upon the District Commissioners Friday and requested that the fire limits of the city be extended to the Eastern Branch.

William M. Potter, a spokesman of the party, and he made strong arguments to induce the Commissioners to extend the limits. Those who composed the committee were William M. Potter, Andrew Johnson, Jr., T. Oliver Proby, J. E. Fobie, F. M. Allen, L. Williams, Henry W. Dawson, Charles C. Grimsby, J. H. Conrad, Henry Bosley, Samuel R. Gates, John Campbell, William H. Jones, and Annie E. Eaton. Basil C. Wallich, J. M. Brisbane, Annie M. King, C. L. Rogers, J. H. Lippard, D. C. Bill, H. C. Summers, and George J. Bessler. No decision was reached.

Mauritz Trager, a small boy, was saved from an injury Wednesday afternoon by policeman J. J. Brown of the fifth precinct. The boy was riding on the car tracks at Pennsylvania avenue and Third street southeast, near an approaching car. The policeman grabbed the child just as the latter was about to get in the way of the car.

Frank McFarland, of 152 Eleventh street southeast, received a painful injury to his hand Saturday afternoon by the breaking of a bottle. He was filling the bottle at his home at the time the accident happened, and was sent to Providence Hospital.

Miss Rosa Coleman has gone to spend a few days at Atlantic City.

The Originals, a club of Hill club, composed of Messrs. William J. Howard, John J. Foley, G. W. Doonan, Harvey Cain, and John A. Corrigan, gave their first complimentary outing and dance to one of the popular river resorts Monday of last week. The party enjoyed a delightful trip down on the little yacht Mary, and a happy evening when the yacht was reached to participate in the dancing. Refreshments were served during the intermission and on the way home. Mr. Hart entertained the party with several popular songs, and Mr. Slaymaker recited. The party reached home about 12 o'clock.

"Experts" vs. "Pikers." The weekly shoot of the Eastern Branch Gun Club took place Tuesday evening on the grounds of the club near the District Jail in southeast. The club was divided into two teams, the "Experts" and the "Pikers," composed of Messrs. Williams, Torrey, and Varela, and the "Pikers," composed of Messrs. Orison, Byrd, Lohr, Etzler, and Hildreth. Each team shot at twenty-five birds, and the "Experts" won by two birds. On the fourth of July shoot, the "Pikers" defeated the "Experts" in two matches, and the latter turned the tables and won out last Tuesday. Dr. Varela and Mr. Nally also took part in Tuesday's shoot, but were not members of either team.

While working in the tunnel in southeast early Thursday morning shortly after midnight, John L. McCormick, twenty-nine years old, living at 219 C street southeast, was struck by a large lump of dirt, which fell upon his right foot and caused a painful injury. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

A large crowd of Capitol Hill young people, in charge of H. Claggett, celebrated the Fourth by a delightful trip down the river on the yacht Lydia. The party left about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and after a visit to the Italian ship Dogal, then anchored near Washington. After being shown over the vessel by an officer, the party continued up the river and visited Fort Washington, River View, and Marshall Hall, where they stopped off and danced. Supper was served on the yacht, and the party entered the cool river breezes until a late hour.

The employees of the navy yard will this summer repeat their philanthropic work of last season by taking 500 children and mothers among the poor to River View. All the expenses of the trip will be met by the employees, and the summer outings committee of the Associated Charities. Last summer 450 children and mothers enjoyed a delightful day's outing at the popular resort. The party will leave Washington at 10 a. m., Friday, July 28, and returning leave River View at 5 p. m. of the afternoon.

Miss Shomo gave her last dance of the season Thursday night, July 6, at Naval Lodge Hall, corner Fourth and Pennsylvania avenue.

Martha Chapter, Order of the Eastern

Star, No. 4, has discontinued its meetings until next September.

The International Association of Machinists met Wednesday evening of last week in Naval Lodge Hall. During July, August, and September, the meetings will be held every third Wednesday. After September, the meetings will be continued weekly.

Mrs. Sommers is staying with her daughter at Atlantic City.

Real Estate Transfers. The following number among some real estate transfers that have occurred in Southeast during the past week:

Walter E. Wright to Le G. and White, 21 Thirteenth street southeast.

Edward Abner to Charles E. Engels, 415 East Capitol street, $10,000.

John A. Foster to Emilie Heinzelinger, part of lot 11, square 738, on D street southeast between Third and Fourth streets.

Richard Rothwell to Daisy V. Schoonmaker, lot 59, square 1017, C street between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets.

Progress is being rapidly made on the playgrounds in rear of the Eastern High School. Holes have been dug for swings and other amusements, and a wooden fence has been erected near the Wallack School to protect the garden and to keep the children off the Wallack lawn.

Miss Lucy Crow has gone to Colonial Beach, to remain several days.

Mrs. Washburn, accompanied by her husband, is visiting her brother, H. C. Graves, at Green Valley, near Hancock, Md.

Brightwood Owing to the heavy rains last week a number of complaints have been made regarding the dangerous condition of the streets from washouts. On Lowell street just west of Nineteenth, a bad washout occurred in the center of the driveway, causing much inconvenience to frequenters of that road. Another bad cut in the road is on Nineteenth street, between Howard and Lowell avenues. A depression in the sidewalk in front of 1233 Keneas avenue has filled with mud and water, causing much annoyance to pedestrians.

Last Tuesday afternoon Fannie Long was taken ill at Fourteenth and K streets, with her daughter's infant in her arms. A policeman who was sent for called the patrol and sent the woman and child to their home.

Lighting Burns Insulators. A serious accident was narrowly averted last Thursday morning by the presence of mind of Alvin E. Trice, who was driving a milk wagon, at Fourteenth and Park streets. Just as the corner was turned the front wheel of the wagon sunk into a soft place in the road, and the horse was badly frightened. The horse was badly frightened. Though painfully bruised about his shoulders, knees and hips, Trice jumped to his feet and seized the bridle of the animal. Had the man lain where he was when he first fell the wagon might have passed over him.

During the storm last week a large tree was blown across the roadway of Seventeenth street at the intersection of that street with the Piney Branch road. Traffic was interrupted for some time.

Worried by Weeds. Weeds, which have overgrown the sidewalk on the south side of Irving street, between Shearman avenue and Eleventh street, have caused much complaint from the citizens of that locality. The weeds have been allowed to grow across the pavement, and people passing that way are compelled to walk around them.

A serious accident was narrowly averted last Thursday morning by the presence of mind of Alvin E. Trice, who was driving a milk wagon, at Fourteenth and Park streets. Just as the corner was turned the front wheel of the wagon sunk into a soft place in the road, and the horse was badly frightened. The horse was badly frightened. Though painfully bruised about his shoulders, knees and hips, Trice jumped to his feet and seized the bridle of the animal. Had the man lain where he was when he first fell the wagon might have passed over him.

During the storm last week a large tree was blown across the roadway of Seventeenth street at the intersection of that street with the Piney Branch road. Traffic was interrupted for some time.

Personal Points. Lieutenant Elliott, of the Tenth precinct, went on leave for a few days last week.

Privates F. P. Keller and Donaldson, of No. 10, were on leave last week.

Private Houser has returned to the station house after a leave of two days.

Private Hogland, who has been ill for the last two weeks, is still unable to report for duty at the precinct. Others who are on the sick list at No. 10 are Private E. M. Jett, Sergeant J. E. Wilson, and Private Buckingham.

The members of No. 2 chemical engine house, though regretting to lose Capt. Timothy Brown who was lately assigned to the fireboat, are much elated that they should have for a captain in Brown's place, Capt. W. J. Seitz, who has been one of the most popular men in the fire department since his enlistment a number of years ago.

Private Jack Ryan, of the engine company, went on leave last week for twenty days. His wife has gone to stay with her mother in southwest Washington, while Ryan, it is said, will spend vacation at Dan Henry's place in Alexandria.

Private Bassford, of No. 2 chemical engine, returned from leave last week after a fourteen days' stay in the mountains with his wife and twin boys. The young Bassfords are in the pink of condition after their mountain trip.

Louis Orth, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, died last Wednesday after a short illness. Orth was seventy-one years of age and had served in many active campaigns during the civil war.

The three-year-old daughter of Mr. Kieky, Laura, died at the home of her parents, 525 Brightwood avenue, last Tuesday.

The following deaths occurred at Freedman's Hospital last week: James Oliver Brown, 22 years; Edward Brown, 59 years; Benjamin Jackson, 42 years.

Doctor Heinicke has moved into his beautiful new residence at the corner of Brightwood avenue and Ingraham street.

The Rev. Walter F. Smith, pastor of Whitney Avenue Memorial Christian Church, has returned from Baltimore, where he attended the Christian Endeavor convention.

The building proper of the Rimmel Memorial Hall is finished, with the exception of putting on the roof. Dr. Smith hopes to have the hall completed some time this fall.

Charles King has transferred to Elizabeth Drop lot 23 of block 43.

Mrs. George Irving Cole, residing in Quincy street, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Raybold, of Southeast Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinehart left last night for Atlantic City, where they expect to remain for about ten days.

Anacostia

A horse attached to a huckster wagon, belonging to George Day, of Giesboro, became frightened on Nichols avenue Friday night about 10 o'clock, and overturned the wagon. The occupant of the vehicle sustained a slightly injured ankle, but was able to go home without assistance.

The Rev. Mr. Hilyer preached at the Esther Memorial Chapel last Sunday. The Rev. Hilyer and the Rev. George C. Groves will preach alternately Sundays for some time.

A meeting of the board of directors of the German Orphan Asylum on the Good Hope road, of Sunday afternoon at the institution. Report was made of satisfactory progress on the work of installing two fire-escapes on the building.

Complaint has been filed with the authorities by W. S. Dodge, who lives in Jefferson street, in regard to the prevalence of sewer gas in his vicinity. It is alleged that the gas escapes from the sewer on Jefferson street between Adams and Taylor streets.

Semi-annual installation of officers of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 2, I. O. O. F., was held recently at Masonic Hall, Anacostia. The installation held on Monday following officers: W. Bradford, grand master; J. R. Fague, grand secretary; J. N. Cunningham, grand marshal; J. W. Bennett, grand warden. The new officers were: J. E. Snow, noble grand; J. W. Wayland, vice grand; W. H. Nash, financial secretary; J. K. Davison, recording secretary, and Alpheus Davison, treasurer.

While attempting to climb between two freight cars in the Anacostia freight yard Wednesday night, Thomas A. Dooley fell and painfully injured his back. The patrol wagon was called from No. 5 station and he was taken to Providence Hospital.

A large number of persons gathered on the Eastern Branch shores near the Anacostia bridge Sunday afternoon, to witness the baptizing of converts. People of the Hillsdale C. M. E. Church. The Rev. Mr. Garriot, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremonies.

Miss Jennie G. Bartley, of Anacostia, has accompanied a party of teachers to Asbury Park, where she will stay until the middle of July.

Lighting Burns Insulators. A serious accident was narrowly averted last Thursday morning by the presence of mind of Alvin E. Trice, who was driving a milk wagon, at Fourteenth and Park streets. Just as the corner was turned the front wheel of the wagon sunk into a soft place in the road, and the horse was badly frightened. The horse was badly frightened. Though painfully bruised about his shoulders, knees and hips, Trice jumped to his feet and seized the bridle of the animal. Had the man lain where he was when he first fell the wagon might have passed over him.

During the storm last week a large tree was blown across the roadway of Seventeenth street at the intersection of that street with the Piney Branch road. Traffic was interrupted for some time.

Personal Points. Lieutenant Elliott, of the Tenth precinct, went on leave for a few days last week.

Privates F. P. Keller and Donaldson, of No. 10, were on leave last week.

Private Houser has returned to the station house after a leave of two days.

Private Hogland, who has been ill for the last two weeks, is still unable to report for duty at the precinct. Others who are on the sick list at No. 10 are Private E. M. Jett, Sergeant J. E. Wilson, and Private Buckingham.

The members of No. 2 chemical engine house, though regretting to lose Capt. Timothy Brown who was lately assigned to the fireboat, are much elated that they should have for a captain in Brown's place, Capt. W. J. Seitz, who has been one of the most popular men in the fire department since his enlistment a number of years ago.

During the storm last week a large tree was blown across the roadway of Seventeenth street at the intersection of that street with the Piney Branch road. Traffic was interrupted for some time.

Recovered His Wallet. Victor Beyer, a resident of Anacostia, engaged in farming, below Congress Heights, was very fortunate in recovering, last Saturday, a wallet containing over $50 and some valuable papers worth $200, which he lost in Center market. He reported the loss to the police as soon as possible, and in less than four hours an employee of the market handed Mr. Beyer his wallet intact. The man had found it near a special committee for the purpose of defining the duties of the standing committees. A request from a number of citizens on Washington street that a sewer by installed above Adams street was presented by Mr. Minnix. The matter was referred to the committee on sewers.

The choir of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church gave an old folks' concert on the Christie estate Tuesday evening. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Men's Club of the church of which Arthur B. Sult is president. The singing was directed by Daniel C. Smithson, and the organ was played by Edward T. Davis. Mr. Sult was in charge of the refreshments committee. The following took part in the concert: Mesdames Eva Jost, May Latimer, Elizabeth Nelson, Elizabeth Bube, Samuel Campbell, and Grace Linger, and Misses Maud Fowler, Bertha Mahoney, Ella Simpson, Emma Simpson, Emma Isaac, Edna Eno, Sadie Pumphrey, Mabel Pyle, Lucy King, Edna King, William King, Grace Isaac, and Messrs. John H. Harts, John K. Stanley, Stanley Kline, Frank Barsa, Samuel Pumphrey, Watson Isaac, Gilbert Ley, Sewell Fort, Harry Wedding, and John Poulton.

William Kearns, of Fauquier county, Va., father of S. J. Kearns, of Anacostia, is visiting his son on Nichols avenue.

Overcome by Heat. Gabriel Johnson, an aged man whose home is on Angier avenue, Anacostia, was overcome by the heat while in the city Tuesday afternoon. The ambulance from the Emergency Hospital was called and after he had been revived he was able to go to his home.

Roads in the vicinity of Anacostia have suffered much as a result of the recent heavy rains, and persons who are obliged to pass over them daily have experienced much difficulty. Many washouts are reported.

The eleventh anniversary of Electa Chapter, No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, was celebrated Tuesday evening in Masonic Hall, at Jackson and Pierce streets. The decorations of all kinds adorned the hall, and ferns and potted plants abounded. Several humorous character sketches were contributed by Charles E. Harrison, and solos were sung by Miss Beulah Luxon, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Miss Ada Burch, and Dr. Bruce Hoofnagle.

The Rev. Walter F. Smith, pastor of Whitney Avenue Memorial Christian Church, has returned from Baltimore, where he attended the Christian Endeavor convention.

The building proper of the Rimmel Memorial Hall is finished, with the exception of putting on the roof. Dr. Smith hopes to have the hall completed some time this fall.

Charles King has transferred to Elizabeth Drop lot 23 of block 43.

Mrs. George Irving Cole, residing in Quincy street, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Raybold, of Southeast Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinehart left last night for Atlantic City, where they expect to remain for about ten days.

Appointed on Police Force. Vincent Osterman, of Maple avenue, has been appointed a private on the Metropolitan police force, and has been assigned to duty.

The following officers were recently elected by the Sunday school of the Anacostia Baptist Church: John T. Dent, superintendent; Luther Padgett, assistant superintendent; Willis Harlan, secretary; John Sears, assistant secretary; Miss Orville Harlan, treasurer; Conrad Paxton, librarian; Frank Paxton, assistant librarian.

Mary S. Sult has transferred the property on lot 6, block 6, Twining City, to Henry C. and Edward R. Tasker.

Takoma Park Mrs. Lewis Treuman, who left last week for a trip in the North, visited Niagara Falls for a brief stay, after which she left for Thousand Isles, where she will remain a few days.

Arthur Walker, who has been ill for the past three weeks, has improved to such an extent that his physician has allowed him to leave his room. Though Mr. Walker has almost entirely recovered, it will be some little time before he will be able to leave the house, because of his weakened condition.

Alfred Jones and family on last Tuesday moved to their new residence on Chestnut avenue. Mr. Jones has had the house renovated.

Mr. Holmes, who left the Park last year to reside in East Washington, has returned to his old residence on the Piney Branch road.

Joseph Stanley, of Takoma, Md., who was injured the Fourth of July by being struck by a southbound car of the Brightwood line, at Brightwood avenue and the District line, has recovered.

Le Blanche Burdette, of Takoma Heights, has returned to his home from Brooklyn, N. Y., where Mrs. Burdette has been visiting for some time. Before leaving Brooklyn, Mrs. Burdette visited friends at Paterson, N. J.

Theodore Knight of Fanwood, N. J., is the guest of Wilson Knight, of Takoma Heights. Mr. Knight will remain in the Park for several days.

Councilman Scudder Recovering. At the regular meeting of Federal Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., in Northeast Temple, on Wednesday night, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term: N. G. S. N. Maloney, R. S. N. G. E. B. Russ, L. S. N. G. E. F. Newman, V. G. W. G. Lang, R. S. V. G. C. F. Cooke, R. S. G. G. Wilson, F. S. D. C. Cook, treasurer, G. H. Eakle, custodian, W. H. Singleton, R. S. S. D. W. Bruce, L. S. S. J. G. Loos, chaplain, C. J. Garrells, C. Carl J. Hellerstedt, warden, James Asford, J. J. C. John H. Hogan, G. P. S. G. Taylor, G. T. Andrew Turnbull, G. M., Charles D. Shackelford.

After the installation exercises refreshments were served, and an hour of good fellowship followed. The report of the finance committee submitted to the grand officers showed the lodge to be in a flourishing condition.

Father V. F. Schmitt, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, is about to leave the city on a vacation, to last six weeks. He will take a trip to the Northwest, visiting several points in Minnesota and in Canada. In his absence Father Ignatius Fealy will have charge of the parish.

The Sunday school and congregation of St. Joseph's Church held their annual excursion Monday at Chesapeake Beach. A large number went to the beach and enjoyed the day. Among the features of the outing was a game of baseball, in which Father Fealy played first base on the winning team.

Hugh P. McKivitt, of 13 First street, is seriously ill with pulmonary trouble. F. O. Markward, who was driver of No. 8 engine company, has been reduced in rank and transferred to No. 3 company.

Miss Mamie Miller, of 336 Eleventh street, will leave the city this afternoon for a three weeks' trip to New York and Boston.

Miss Jessie Dent, of 726 Fifth street, is about to leave home to spend the balance of the summer in Massachusetts.

To Exchange Pulpits. The Rev. Hez Swem of the Second Baptist Church, and the Rev. A. K. Wright, of the Centennial Baptist Church, will exchange pulpits this morning.

Henry Edward Glatz, infant son of Henry Edward and Mrs. Glatz, of 911 Twelfth street, died on Monday. The funeral took place from Holy Name Church Wednesday morning.

The family of Max Ohle, of truck company A, is spending the summer months at a cottage in Kenilworth. Mrs. Ohle will take a short trip this month to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Patton, of 1317 G street, wife of the janitor of the Pierce School, who died July 7, was buried in Glenwood cemetery on Tuesday, after funeral services at her late home. Rev. R. R. Riedel, of Maryland Avenue Baptists Church, officiated.

Rev. Charles Butler and Mrs. Butler started housekeeping last week in their new home, 45 Eleventh street. They returned to the city from their wedding journey last Monday and were given a reception in Keller Memorial Church that evening.

Driver Charles McIntosh, of truck company A, attended the festivities at Eleno Grotto on Friday night and sang several popular songs.

Miss Anna Mulligan and Miss Emma J. Clouse, school teachers from Pittsburgh, and Prof. and Mrs. James L. Palmer, of Greenville, Pa., were the guests last week of Rev. and Mrs. R. Riedel at 922 Maryland avenue.

Rev. Theodor Grotter, pastor of Kendall Baptist Church, and Rev. R. Riedel, of Maryland Avenue Baptist Church, exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning.

Mrs. D. A. Oliver, of 1234 G street, with her three children, left yesterday for a month's stay in Virginia. Her destination is a farm house near Warrenton.

last Sunday by the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, of Oxen Hill district Prince George county, and in spite of the bad condition of the roads, vehicles conveyed a large number of persons to the